Obituary

Irma Jene Van Hook was born to the proud parents of Charles and Helen Harris, on June 23, 1946, in Monroe, LA. At the age of two the family relocated to Richmond, CA. Irma relocated to Sacramento, CA, in 1997, where she was surrounded by her loved ones as her life came to an end on December 18, 2010.

Irma accepted the Lord as her Savior and at an early age was baptized at True Gospel Baptist Church, in Oakland, CA.

Irma was educated through the Richmond Unified School District. Irma graduated from Harry Ells High School in 1964. She was employed with Bank Of America for over 20 years.

Irma enjoyed sewing, gardening, and most importantly family gatherings. Her favorite thing was breaking the tables playing cards and dominoes. She was always full of smiles and kind words. Irma enjoyed spending time with her great grandchildren and was loved and respected by her family and friends.

Irma is preceded in death by her loving parents, Charles and Helen Harris, her beloved siblings Freddie and Garland Harris, along with a host of other family and friends.

Irma leaves to mourn her loving long term companion, Charles E. Johnson, Jr. of Sacramento, CA; two daughters Sammatha Van Hook and Amelia A. Van Hook both of Sacramento, CA; 6 grandchildren: Ashley M. Van Hook-Roberson, Christian D. Van Hook-Roberson Charles E. Roberson, Jr., Samuel A. Van Hook-Harris all of Sacramento, CA and Damon S. Davis, Jr., and Dajon V. Davis, both of Fairfield, CA; 3 great grandchildren: Deiondre Oliver, Jr., J'Sean James, and Josiah Davis; 1 brother: Kenneth Harris of Petaluma, CA, 3 sisters: her twin, Bernie Fisher of Sacramento, CA, JoAnn Alexander of Dallas, TX, and Helena Harris of Richmond, CA; her Godmother Jessie Gallon, a special friend: Sharon Dilliehunt and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other family and friends. We honor her with our love and presence.
